The Prettiest of New Easter DressesIn Which the Young Spring Herself Would Be Even More Charming Than She Is If That Were Possible.Two especially attractive models in taffeta silk. One is in new coatee style, with cross-over effect in front, trimmed with metal buttons, Georgette sleeves, full skirt, an unusual width; Georgette vestee and collar of white veiled with color.Another new model is a new coat style, new shoulder effect, panel front and panel back, with tunic effect at sides. New small touches make up a very charming dress. Flat corded bows on belt and at end of revers are very new. The white Georgette vestee is finished with picot edge.There are many other styles at this price in the most wanted mat-terials, and all sizes to select from—styles becoming to the slender and to the well-developed woman. Choice.$19.75

CONGRESSIONAL UNION
TRAIN REACHES CHICAGOGov. Dunne, of Illinois, Will Welcome Visitors to Farthest East Sufrage State.The "Sufrage Special" pulled into Chicago, the first lap of the Congressional Union's big swing through the West, on time, and a rousing reception was accorded the envoys, according to a message received at national headquarters of the union late yesterday afternoon.
The women of Chicago gave an enthusiastic welcome to the envoys as the special drew into the station. A platoon of mounted police acted as an escort to the Illinois headquarters of the union where the delegates were given a reception. A parade, in decorated automobiles featured the demonstration.Today at noon at the approach to the city, a great open mass meeting will be held at which Gov. Dunne, of Illinois, will welcome the visitors.May Exempt Red Cross Cars.
London, April 10.—When debate on the new budget was resumed in commons today, Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, announced that the government is considering a proposal to exempt from duty motor cars imported for Red Cross uses.May Call for 500 Deputies.

Will Be Dependency of U. S.
Within Next Five Years.Visualizing the disaster of being suddenly precipitated into a war with a powerful nation, notable speakers, addressing the opening session of the eleventh annual convention of the Navy League of the United States at the New Willard yesterday, pleaded for a navy adequate to defend the country from invasion. More than 1,000 delegates from all parts of the United States already have registered.By picture and word the speakers portrayed the present comparatively weak position of the United States with other world powers. They asserted that from the proud position of second place in the list of naval powers, the United States has dropped to a poor fourth place.Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard University, in an address on "Naval Defense of the Monroe Doctrine," declared that before adjournment the convention must admit the failure of the Monroe Doctrine or else the American government must give evidence indicative of backing the doctrine from top to bottom.
Continuing, he said:Wants Great Navy.
"We need a navy second to no responsibility we already incurred. Whatever naval force is necessary to protect the interests of the American citizen on the high seas is necessary to protect our interest in neighboring States. The navy must be brought up to that point, or else we are disgraced and inevitably will receive the most terrible humiliation that has been placed upon any nation since the clash in France in 1870."He predicted that within five years Mexico would be a dependency of the United States."The Making of a Navy" was the subject last night of an illustrated lecture by Dr. Nevil Monro Hopkins.
Dr. Edward Birk, secretary of the league, introduced Dr. Hopkins with a brief address on "Lessons of American History."Col. Robert M. Thompson, president of the league, in his opening address yesterday, denounced the statements contained in full page advertisements sent broadcast over the country by Henry Ford. Answering an insinuation that he personally, as chairman of the board of directors of the international Nickel Company, would profit by an increased building program, he said:Organization Approves Tinkham Meas-$150 a day, received a goodly share of consideration from the Northeast Washington Citizens' Association in the meeting last night at the Northeast Temple.

Twelfth and H streets northeast.The association not only declared it was humanitarian to raise their wage to $2 a day, but that the government should provide and launder their uniforms. It was brought out at the meeting that the street sweepers, receiving $9 or $10.50 a week, paid $1 a week for laundry bills.Tinkham Bill Approved.
The association decisively sided with the opponents of the Johnson forum bill, which would open the public school buildings for public use on Sundays. It would not "promote the object intended and the purposes sought to be obtained," and that such action would be "monopolistic."The association approved the Tinkham bill placing District government employees under Civil Service regulations with the proviso that eligibles for District employment be only from the District.A resolution was adopted favoring a new plant for the Washington Asylum Hospital, but no action was taken as to the location of the hospital, which is proposed to be at Fourteenth and Upshur streets northwest. Dr. Starr Pearson presented a report, as chairman of the school committee, advocating an addition to the Wheatley School, rather than the Blair School. S. R. Blanton and George E. Little were elected members.CARMEN'S UNION AIDS MEMBERS ON STRIKEResolutions Guarantee Financial and Moral Support to Washington-Virginia Employees.Members of the local carmen's union last night guaranteed their moral and financial support to the employees of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company now on strike in resolutions adopted at a mass-meeting at Clarendon. The resolutions follow:Whereas, members of Division 696 have been locked out by the Virginia-Washington Railway Company; and, whereas, it becomes necessary for the organization to act in defense of its members in asking all other employees of said company to join with them in an effort to secure their just demands; therefore, be it resolved, That members of Division 696, of Washington, D. C., guarantee our moral and financial support to the members of Division 696 until a satisfactory settlement has been secured. By order of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, Division 696. (Signed) George A. Wilbur, president; J. H. Cookman, recording secretary, and Garth W. Calderhead, financial secretary.Addresses were made by "Mother" Jones, organizer of the West Virginia miners; Rexin Orr, organizer of the carmen; L. A. Sterne, organizer for the American Federation of Labor, and Frank Ball, Commonwealth's attorney for Alexandria county.The following resolution was adopted by the meeting as a whole:
"Resolved, by the open meeting of the members of Division 696 and citizens of this town and vicinity, that we endorse the stand of our fellow-citizens in their efforts to improve their working conditions."To Cure a Cold in One Day

ISN'T CHASING VILLA

ator Fall, "passing between the town of New Casas Grandes and Old Casas Grandes, within one mile of the garrison in the latter town, and continued his retreat across the open plain to the southwest, in full view of the garrison for more than twelve miles, without interruption or interference from any of the Car-ranzistas, numbering 700, and under command of Col. Saenz."Other instances are given of the failure of Carranza troops to co-operate for the capture of the bandit chief. Senator Fall writes:"Immediately after our troops went in from Columbus the Carranzistas abandoned Casas Grandes, Galeana, San Buena, Ventura, Cruces, and other places in the Casas Grandes and Santa Maria valleys, with the exception of about 150 guards scattered in these different towns and held in Casas Grandes to the number of about seventy-five."Denies Carranza Attacks.
"Newspaper reports as to any fight between Villa and any of these Car-ranzistas up to the day before Col.
Dood had his brush with the Mexicans near San German are absolute falsehoods, the Mexicans making no attempt to attack Villa at all and have not in any way been co-operating with our force or attempted to check Villa's retreat or to assist in his capture."The Mexicans from these different points where they claim to have several thousand troops constituting the various columns, which we were assured by Carranza were surrounding him, had surrounded Villa as a matter of fact never did number more than 1,000 in all, with the exceptions which I have before named, either north to Guzman or east to points along the Mexican Central Railroad."The Senator has obtained authentic information, he writes, that the Mexican population, aside from the bandits under arms have welcomed the United States troops and deal with them upon the most friendly terms.The only opposition which they are meeting with at all among the populace is because of the understanding that we are assisting Carranza," writes Senator Fall."The State of Chihuahua is not for Carranza nor are any of the states of the north," he writes. "The same condition practically exists throughout the republic."PROTEST "BIRTH OF NATION"*600 Colored Persons in Mass Meet-

BARS WOMEN MEMBERSPiney Branch Association Holds Applicant Ineligible Although She Is Property Owner.The question of admitting women into the Piney Branch Citizens' Association arose at the session last night. The matter came up with the recommendation of the membership committee of a woman's name. The constitution was interpreted at the meeting as prohibiting women as members.This interpretation, however, was declared to be unsatisfactory, following the meeting. Since the applicant was a taxpayer, the question was not settled, but was referred to the next meeting.
The by-laws provide for five days' notice for a constitutional amendment, which, according to the interpretation given last night, is necessary for the admittance of women as members.The association declared itself in favor of prohibition for the District and against the proposed referendum of the prohibition question.
The proposed removal of Washington Asylum Hospital to Fourteenth and Upshur streets northwest was opposed, yet a new plan for the hospital was advocated.New members elected were H. S. Col-
